

UNSW Study Abroad

Merit-based Scholarship Application Form

The University of New South Wales Study Abroad Program scholarship is awarded on academic merit and contributions to the campus or the community. To apply, you need to have successfully completed one semester at UNSW. Your first semester results will be printed and attached to your application by UNSW Study Abroad. Submit your application directly to UNSW Study Abroad at Level 16 in the Mathews Building.

Attachments

Please submit with your application:

- A typed Statement of Purpose. Include the reasons for your choice of second semester courses.
- Two UNSW academic references to support your application. One of your referees must be a senior UNSW academic.
- A third reference may be submitted to support any wider campus or community involvement you may have undertaken.
